NEW P. AND O. STEAMERS.

The largest vessel yet built at Greenock the Malacca, a twin-screw steamer of 11,500 tons gross measurement, was launched on Oct. 10 from the yard of Messrs Caird and Co. She is the first of two similar vessels to the order of the Peninsular and Oriental Company, the second vessel, the Manila, being on the stocks adjacent to those just launched. A third and similar vessel, the Morocco, was launched in August from the yard of Messrs Barclay, Curle and Co., Whiteinch, this also being the largest steamer ever sent off the stocks at Whiteinch. All three vessels are intended for the P. and O.
Company's service to India and Australia.
They will be the largest in the fleet, which they will augment by almost 35,000 tons bringing the total tonnage up to 413,000 tons, and the average of each ship of the existing fleet up to 6,789 tons. The dimensions of the Malacca, one of her sisters are—Length, 500 ft.; breadth, 61 ft.; and depth (to spar deck), 38 ft. 3 in., and she is fitted with accommodation of the highest class for 400 first-class and 250 second-class passengers. She will be fitted by her builders with a quadruple expansion engine, capable of propelling her at a high speed.
The vessel will be steered and her cargo will be worked by hydraulic gear of up-to-date character for rapidity and silence in working.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Pearl: "So little Flatterer is going to marry Ruby. I'd no idea he had any intentions in that direction." Pansie: "He didn't. The intention originated with her."

"Know anything about dairying?" "A bit." "Know which side to milk a cow on?" "Yes." "Which?" "Outside."

He: "What is your favourite pet in the animal world?" She (enthusiastically):
"Man!"

Cholly: "Does your father object to my smoking, darling?" Flossie: "Not if you bring your own cigars."

Ethel: "Maude has been trying to learn how to play golf for quite a few weeks now."
Penelope: "Is her instructor stupid?"
Ethel: "No, handsome."

"Do you ever talk back to your wife?"
asked the solicitous friend. "Sometimes," answered Mr. Meekton. "A very little;
just to show her that I have not gone to sleep."

Mr. Manly (to his wife): "It's your birthday to-morrow, my dear, and here's half-a-crown for you. You'd better keep it by you, because it's my birthday next month."

Geyer: "Yes, he is what you might term a financial pessimist." Myer: "What's a financial pessimist?" Geyer: "A man who is afraid to look pleasant for fear his friends will want to borrow from him."

Charitable Man (to former blind beggar):
"What have you recovered your sight?"
Beggar: "Well, you see it's this way.
I've lost my dog, and as I can no longer be blind, I've become a deaf mute."

Landlady: "You make an awful noise with that flute." Boarder: "Well, I'm sorry to hear it." Landlady: "So's somebody else."

"I notice that you always sit at your wife's left, Mr. Meggs." "Yes," frankly replied Mr. Meggs; "that's the side her glass eye is on."

Landlady: "You will either have to pay what you owe or leave." Slowly "Thanks. The last place I was at they made me do both."

"This," remarked Mr. Caine, "is my photograph with my two French poodles.
You recognize me?" "I think so," said Miss Sofie. "You are the one with the haired on, are you not?"

"That dog of yours has a remarkably high-pitched voice." "Yes, he is the right sort to belong to an old sailor like me."

"GREAT COUNCIL OF EMPIRE."

Colonel Seely, M.P. (Under-Secretary for the Colonies), at a dinner given by the Liverpool Junior Reform Club, of which he is president, said he believed that we were drawing very near to a better system in the government of the Empire, under which there would be established a great council of Empire, by which the different problems of Asiatic immigration, Asiatic exclusion, and the liberty of the subject would all be discussed and debated without heat, and with full authority and knowledge.

THE PERFECT WOMAN

Miss Katharine Beveridge, an American sculptor, has travelled 25,000 miles to find a perfectly beautiful woman as a model for her Venus, and, after an exhaustive search, awards the palm for Greek perfection of form naturally perhaps—to her own country woman. She claims that the American woman passes through her most perfect state between the ages of 14 and 22 years. "The beauty of English women," she adds, "is so remarkable that it requires an acquired taste to appreciate it. What they lack in form they amply make up for in complexion, hair, and, above all, in exquisite voice." Miss Beveridge claims that for stateliness, magnificent physical beauty no place equals California, but she admits that the Southern States can show the highest type of beauty.

A French woman, according to the American sculptor, "is a veritable fairy, for even with indifferent physical material she manages to outshine all other women—dressed. In wit, in vivacity, in adaptability, in conversation she remains unequalled, but she is more suited for a dressmaker's than a sculptor's model." If the German woman could be deprived of potatoes and beer, they, Miss Beveridge thinks, would become a handsome people. She found the young Italian and Spanish women more picturesque than statuesque, and they have one charm that American women do not possess—repose. In Turkey, Bulgaria, and Roumania she found that the lay life and sedentary existence ruined the forms of otherwise beautiful women.

In Russia Miss Beveridge found only two types—the plain and the perfect; unfortunately, the former predominates. It is only in the highest circles that the beauty of Russian women develops, and these women are naturally unobtainable as models. The Hungarians were found to be too voluptuous for sculpture, and among the Scandinavians Miss Beveridge found that the men were far superior to the women from the sculptor's standpoint. Cape Colony, she declares, is a garden full of sweet, pretty women, but unfortunately they lack proper appreciation of themselves, which shows in their carriage and general behaviour. Dutch women decidedly are not adaptable from the sculptor's standpoint, and Flemish women generally are uninspiring.

A SAFE REMEDY FOR ALL SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASES

If you suffer from any disease due to an impure state of the blood, from whatever cause arising, you should test the value of Clarke's Blood Mixture, the world-famed Blood Purifier and Restorer. This medicine has 40 years' reputation, and is today more popular than ever, the reason of this being undeniably that this wonderful remedy does what it professes to do—it cures skin and blood diseases permanently.

Clarke's Blood Mixture

IS THE FINEST BLOOD PURIFIER EVER DISCOVERED.

It is warranted to cleanse the blood from all impurities, from whatever cause arising. For SCROFULA, BAD LEGS, SORE THROAT, SLEUTH, SPOTS, EZEEMA, BLOOD POISON, BLACKHEADS, PIMPLES, and SORES OF ALL KINDS.

It is a safe and permanent remedy. It is the only real specific for Gout and Rheumatic Pains, for it removes the cause from the blood and bones.

NOTE. This mixture is pleasant to the taste and the most delicate constitution of either sex, from infancy to old age, and the Proprietors solicit sufferers to give it a trial to test its value. Thousands of wonderful cures have been effected by it.

TRIED MANY THINGS WITHOUT BENEFIT UNTIL I TOOK CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE. Mr. F. B. Lewis, 45, Bridge Street, Boston, writes:—Just a line in favor of 'Clarke's Blood Mixture.' I had eczema for seven months, and tried many things without benefit until I took your remedy. After the eighth bottle I was quite well again. Please accept this letter as a token of gratitude to your wonderful 'Clarke's Blood Mixture.'—June 18, 1908.

IMPERFECTS IN THE BLOOD.—We have seen hosts of letters from all sorts and conditions of people, in which the writers acknowledge the benefit they have received from Clarke's Blood Mixture, which is a curative agent cannot be too highly estimated, since it cleanses and restores the blood from all impurities, and restores it to its normal condition. This is a good testimonial from the 'Famous Doctor,' the popular medical weekly, which goes on further to say:—'It is certainly the finest blood purifier that science and skill have brought to light, and we can with the utmost confidence recommend it to our subscribers and public generally.'

Sold by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the World.
Ask for CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE and beware of cheap imitations and substitutes.

HOW TO DO MORE BUSINESS.

MANY AMERICANS have built up great commercial enterprises, by the use of Trade-News items supplied by our CLIPPING BUREAU. Chinese merchants can do the same if they follow American methods.

We clip business news from more than 50,000 papers monthly, and send these items to you while there is good prospect of supplying what is needed and doing business.

We can send you news and offerings on any line of business, or any subject, and you will be able to know, IN TRUTH, just what American business methods are like, and where there are openings for Chinese merchandise.

Suppose, for instance, you are a maker of Pottery; our Clipping Bureau might find in some paper an item saying that a wholesale Pottery concern was being organized in a certain town—re, of course, would send you that business-news item, and give you a chance to do business with them.
